The Car Wash Show 2019 Set to Stage in Nashville May 13-15

Cash Wash retailers and suppliers from around the world to gather for product discovery, education and networking

Chicago, IL, October 2, 2018—The Car Wash Show, the world's largest car wash trade show and convention is set to stage May 13-15 in Nashville, TN. Retailers and supply segments of the professional car wash industry in North America and around the globe will gather to discover innovative products, participate in expert led education, and peer-to-peer networking.

More than 8,7000 owners, operators, and decision makers from the car wash, fast lube and detailing segments will be on hand to investigate the 160,000 square foot trade show floor. The expo will showcase the hottest new trends in the industry and latest innovations.

“The Car Wash Show 2019 is shaping up to be the best and largest event in recent history,” said Kim Vinciguerra, VP of Events. “Our team works to ensure that we provide the industry with the insights, tools and tactics they need to grow and strengthen their businesses. There is truly something for everyone.”

A full line up of education sessions will offer the community best-in-class sessions designed to provide practical advice and real-life solutions for business success.

Networking ensures that industry professionals have a platform to share business best practices, collaborate on business challenges and gain peer-to-peer insights. The Car Wash Show will host several scheduled events and allow for organic opportunities to connect with colleagues, meet with respected business advisors and develop new relationships or partnerships.

Join us to grow your business, conquer challenges, and contribute to our community of industry professionals at the largest car care event in the country. Registration will open January 2019. Save the date for the most important event of the year for the industry.
